This spacious and sporty Neptunus 156 is in good condition for its age and is being sold by its first owner. The yacht features three cabins for at least six passengers and has two separate bathrooms. The open cockpit and saloon are connected on the same level. A full canopy covers the open cockpit with large viewing windows. An integrated staircase in the cockpit provides access to the spacious flybridge with a U-shaped seating area. The helm station has a two-person pilot seat and offers a well-organized dashboard with all the necessary equipment, including a new Raymarine Axiom plotter. The saloon can be accessed through a stainless steel sliding door. A spacious L-shaped bench and two integrated chairs offers excellent seating comfort. There is ample storage space in the benches and cabinets. The dinette is located opposite the helm station, allowing the entire crew to watch the sailing at a comfortable level. Below deck is the galley with a refrigerator/freezer/microwave/dishwasher/stovetop and sink. On the starboard side, there are two single guest cabins, and on the port side, a double cabin with a French bed. The guest bathroom is located amidships and is freely accessible. Forward is the owner's cabin with a double bed and en-suite bathroom. Ample storage is located under the forward cabin bed. The aft section is accessed through a wide hatch in the cockpit floor. The aft section contains storage space, a washer and dryer, the generator, and other technical equipment. The engine room is accessible from the aft section. The port engine was replaced in the winter of 2023-2024; invoices for this work are available. This Neptunus 156 is also equipped with: removable cushions for the aft deck, flybridge and foredeck, a bimini top over the flybridge, flybridge sections with covers, stainless steel fender holders, lockable cockpit with a door to the bathing platform, exterior lighting, four sliding windows in the saloon for ventilation and two mosquito screens, mosquito screens for the portholes, a removable sunshade on the windshield, and a side ladder. Interior headroom is approximately 2 meter. For questions and/or to make an appointment, you are welcome at Elburg Yachting 7 days a week.
